

2011 Web Design Internship

The Hondo Group

8310 N. Capital of Texas Highway, Suite 345
Austin, TX 78731

Hours required: 16-24 hours a week (Flexible)

The Hondo Group, a digital strategy and marketing communications company, is dedicated to providing clients with new strategic branding processes in a variety of areas including agriculture, real estate, professional services, technology, green marketing and sustainable business strategies. The Hondo Group helps clients close the marketing loop between great products and satisfied customers. www.hondogroup.com

Description:

The web design intern will learn and assist with coordination in all aspects of the digital side of our agency including defining requirements, estimating and programming with regards to websites and mobile apps.

Qualifications:

- Proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP a plus but not a requirement
- Able to work in Mac environment
- Interest in learning agency environment

Position is unpaid; however interns will be eligible for a stipend at the end of the internship up to $1,000, based on their performance and projects completed.

Interns with The Hondo Group will have the chance to work with an award-winning creative and account service team on local, national and international projects. Our small group provides an unprecedented opportunity for personal attention to education and hands-on learning. The Hondo Group is committed to providing solid work experience to serious-minded individuals in a positive environment.

For more information on internship opportunities, please contact:

Beth Homann

Unison Resource / The Hondo Group

Beth.Homann@unisonresource.com